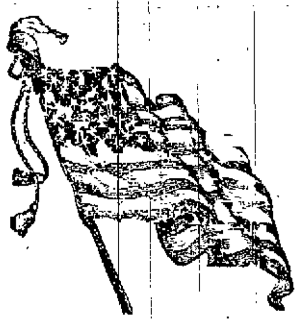
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 17, 1862.

News from the East.

Our Saturday's dispatches inform us of the removal of General McClellan from, and the appointment of General Burnsides to the command of the Army of the Potomac. Our dispatches this morning make no further mention of the subject. General Hooker has been assigned to the command of the army corps formerly under Fitz John Porter, and the latter General ordered to Washington, to answer charges preferred against him by Pope, for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run.

The Richmond Whig, speaking of the recent successes of the Democratic party in some of the Northern States, takes it as an indication of the condemnation by the people of the war policy of the Administration, and thinks that this success is about equal to a declaration of peace.

The combined armies of Burnside and Hooker are rapidly moving down towards Richmond by the route taken by Pope, and we expect very soon to hear of a great and important battle below the Rappahannock. If our army succeeds in whipping the army of Lee, the rebel capitol is ours.

In the West, Rosecrans with his army is pushing on towards Murfreesboro, Tenn., and the rebels who have been reported as concentrating large forces there, will probably follow the illustrious example of those at Holly Springs, Miss., and skedaddle as rapidly as possible. Gen. John G. Foster, commander of the Department of South Carolina, is reported as having achieved several brilliant victories. At the head of his army of 12,000 men, he is reported to have surrounded a rebel force of 3,000, and forced them to an unconditional surrender.

Our foreign intelligence is to the effect that as winter approaches the suffering in the manufacturing districts of England becomes more palpable and general. It is estimated that sixty thousand persons, in Manchester alone, will be dependent upon charity during the winter. Yet the operatives, as is shown in their occasional meetings, bravely and firmly refuse all endeavors to turn their distress into an argument for intervention in American affairs.

King Otho, who has occupied the throne of Greece ever since its independence was fully achieved, has abdicated in favor of his brother, and a Provisional Government has been established.

NEW JERSEY THIRD DISTRICT.—Dr. Orestes A. Brownson, in accepting the Democratic nomination for Representative in Congress in the Third District of New Jersey, said:

I am an American by birth and by conviction, and would strike down an assassin against this Government as I would one against my mother. I would defend it against a Briton or Gaul, and far more would I protect it from a paricidal hand. My friendship and feelings were with the South before this war; but when my Southern friends became the enemies of the Government they also became my enemies. I am for the most vigorous prosecution of the war, and the use of every means to achieve success. I like the President's proclamation, and if I had any fault at all to find it is because it is not strong enough, and its action is delayed too long. If I could, I would liberate every slave in State or Territory, and proclaim them free from this day forever. I believe in the abolition of slavery as a war measure. I trust that under this proclamation we shall succeed; under it we can inscribe on our banner, "Union and Liberty."

THE INDIANS IN SOUTHERN OREGON.—After several weeks of tedious and annoying work, Sub-Indian Agent, A. E. Rodgers, has, at length, succeeded in effecting an understanding or treaty with them. The agreement allows the Indians the privilege of establishing their encampments for the Winter at Rancherie Prairie. No more than five, and they unarmed, are allowed to come to the settlements at one time, for trading purposes. The treaty was signed by La Lake, George, and Long John, on the part of a portion of the Klamath Indians—about forty in number.

An understanding was also had with the Modocs. They will camp for the Winter either at Rancherie Prairie, or at Clear Lake, thirty miles south of Klamath Lake.

We sincerely hope that the Indians will be held to their bond, and the community rid of the thieving, howling and generally pestiferous Siwashes and their miserable tar-heads.—Jacksonville Sentinel.

We have undoubtedly fallen upon troublous times, but the worst feature is the apparent want of unity among the Northern people. A foreign war might unite them, and this result may be the compensating benefits alluded to by Gen. Halleck. Whatever political prejudices may exist among the Irish and thousands of the native born in the North, those prejudices are weak and languid compared with the hatred they entertain against monarchial governments, and particularly that of England. A foreign war might be a benefit, but it is not to be courted except in defense of the national honor.—Transcript.

FREMONT'S ESTATE.—A special dispatch from St. Louis says:

Fremont's friends say he has negotiations on foot to sell the Mariposa tract to a stock company in New York for Treasury notes—that he will receive enough to pay off his debts and have three or four millions left. The company will establish mills and work the quartz on the tract.

Additional Eastern News.

WARRENTON, Va., Nov. 7.—Gen. Longstreet's corps is said to have left Culpepper Court House last Saturday. General Hill's command was here on Saturday, but retreated on the advance of our troops. Reliable citizens confirm the belief of intelligent army officers that General Lee has succeeded in eluding McClellan, and that a large portion of Lee's army is now at Gordonsville. Gen. Hill's forces and Stuart's cavalry formed Lee's rear guard.

The Grenada Appeal of November 5th says: A great fire at Augusta, Georgia, on November 4th, destroyed a cotton warehouse, etc., valued at half a million dollars.

George N. Sanders, says the Appeal, has returned from Europe, and brings the most gratifying assurances of the speedy recognition of the Confederacy. The people of the South rejoice greatly thereat. It is stated that Belgium will take the initiatory step.

CAIRO, November 9th.—The Memphis Bulletin of November 7th says, a large Federal army passed through Grand Junction, Tenn., on Tuesday last.

The same papers learns from a gentleman who lives in De Soto county, Miss., that for twenty miles out on the Pigeon Roost road all the rebel cavalry have disappeared. The same gentleman says that for several days past, the Confederates at Holly Springs have been moving back all the provisions and stores. This is understood to be preparatory to the evacuation of that place. An expedition left Helena, Ark., on Wednesday last, with five days' rations, for Cotton Plant, Miss., where it was understood that a rebel force, 2,500 strong, was gathered. Nothing has been heard from them since.

WARRENTON, November 9th.—Gen. Pleasanton yesterday had a skirmish with Stuart near Little Washington, and captured three pieces of artillery. General Bayard yesterday occupied and now holds the railroad bridge across the Rappahannock.

DETROIT, November 8th.—The Legislature will stand—Senate, seventeen Republicans to fifteen Democrats; House, fifty-eight Republicans to forty-two Democrats.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—There is nothing of special interest from Schofield's army. The rebels do not appear to have attempted to regain their lost advantages or to repossess themselves of any part of Missouri. They have been pursued into Boston mountains, and will certainly be compelled to retreat beyond the Arkansas river. The rebel column that was to take Pilot Knob and Cape Girardeau by way of Pocahontas, has not achieved such results. On the contrary, it has been driven below Pocahontas, and portions of General Steele's command are so disposed at Pittman's Ferry that it will be impossible for the enemy to obtain a foothold in that quarter.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8th.—Charges have been made in the newspapers that General Curtis, while in command at Helena, Arkansas, used his position to speculate in cotton and made two or three million dollars. Whether there is any truth in the charge, or whether made by speculators who were not allowed permits by the General to ship cotton, will probably be determined when the matter comes to trial.

The Knoxville Register of Oct. 25th says the Conscript Law went into effect on that day, and was being rigorously enforced.

Ex-Governor Harris, of Tennessee, issued an order on the 28th October appointing officers to enroll all persons between the ages of 35 and 45.

ST. LOUIS, November 8th.—Although all the returns are not in from the First and Second Districts, the Missouri Democrat concedes the election of Frank Blair and Henry T. Blow, but thinks Samuel Knox (Radical Republican) will contest Blair's seat in the First District.

Information from Memphis says: On the 4th, there was a large rebel force between Collinsville and Memphis, burning cotton and committing other depredations.

Cameron, delegate from British Columbia, and McClure, representative of Victoria, are en route for England, to urge the removal of the Colonial Governor and his principal officials, and the establishment of a different system of government.

Later from Europe.

NEW YORK, November 8.—The Scotia from Liverpool, Oct. 26th, has arrived. Lord Lyons is a passenger.

The Gladiator, from Bermuda, had brought sundry reports as to the hostile intentions of Commodore Wilkes at Nassau, some going so far as to say that he had blockaded the ports and refused to withdraw his ships at the request of the Governor. He sent a boat to the Gladiator and ordered the Captain to come aboard his vessel, but the Captain refused, being at that time under the protection of a British man-of-war, which ran out her guns, ready for action. The matter attracts attention in England. It is stated that orders have been issued for the immediate reinforcement of the West Indian squadron.

The Army and Navy Gazette says that Lord Lyons returns to Washington without any instructions for a change of policy, except such as may be rendered necessary by contingencies.

The London Morning Herald urges the recognition of the South, and thinks the neutrality on which the Government prides itself the greatest cruelty to both parties.

Numerous members of Parliament have been addressing public meetings. All referred to the American question, but generally refrained from urging the recognition of the South.

Cobden addressed the Manchester Chamber of Commerce in advocacy of the abolition of commercial blockades, and measures to secure private property on the seas.

Glass, Elliott & Co. write hopefully of the Atlantic cable, and offer to undertake the contract on the most liberal terms, and express the greatest faith in its accomplishment.

King Otho of Greece has abdicated the throne in favor of his brother. A Provisional Government has been established.

LONDON, SATURDAY.—A letter to the Times, from Manchester, says seventy-eight hundred paupers were added to the poor law statistics during the week. Every day mills are closed and hundreds are reduced to destitution. Virulent typhoid fever had broken out at Preston, traceable to the hardships and privations of the poor. Business at Manchester was at a stand still. The letter says it is expected that sixty thousand persons will be dependent on charity during the coming winter.

At a public meeting at Oldham, England, a resolution was offered calling on Government to recognize the Southern Confederacy as the only means to end the civil war. After a warm debate and uproarious proceedings the motion was declared carried, although the meeting was about equally divided.

The destruction of American ships by the pirate Alabama caused a great advance of the rates of insurance at Lloyds of from 2 to 3 per cent., and an advance at Liverpool even as high as five guineas.

LIEUT. WORDEN.—This officer has nearly recovered from the injuries received during the engagement between the Monitor and the Merrimac, and he will shortly be placed in command of one of the new Monitors.

PRETTY GOOD.—Cæsar and Perry are immortalized for their brief announcements of victory. General Rosecrans has surpassed them both. His dispatch says:

"Lu-kered the enemy."

By Overland Telegraph.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Hooker has been assigned to the command of the Army Corps formerly commanded by Fitz John Porter, who has been ordered to Washington to answer charges preferred by Pope, for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run.

On Sunday morning, Capt. Dahlgren, with sixty of the First Indiana and a detachment of the Sixth Ohio Cavalry, dashed into Fredericksburg, where they fought eight companies of rebel cavalry. He immediately fell in upon them, and a desperate hand to hand fight ensued, lasting three hours, when the rebels retreated. Our men returned with 40 prisoners, with their horses, accoutrements, and their wagons loaded with army goods, having lost but one killed and three wounded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The wagon bridge over the Rappahannock, at Waterloo, 300 feet long, was burned by rebels.

Gen. Sumner's old corps reached Warrenton on Saturday.

The Richmond Whig of Nov. 9th, speaking of the recent northern elections, says they show plainly that the tide is all one way, and that it is against Abraham Lincoln and his rampant war party. If the electioneering asseverations and appeals on this party could be credited, this success of the Democracy is about equal to a declaration of peace; but they are not to be credited, and we are not permitted to take that comfort to our bosoms.

The people mean by this remarkable revolution to declare their deep dissatisfaction, and also that important changes must be made. Having found their strength, we may expect that they will speak their sentiments with boldness which they had not dared to do before.

The Whig also says: "Sunday last the Abolitionists marched from Jamestown, N. C., to a point a short distance below Williamston, on the Roanoke river, cut off two Confederate regiments stationed there. Four companies encountered the whole Yankee force, and kept them at bay the whole day. During the night the Confederate forces arrived, and offered battle to the enemy, who fell back, to prevent a fight. The shelling was kept up by gunboats until 10 o'clock at night."

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 6th.—The Savannah Republican of this morning says "the Abolitionists were bombarding Tampa Bay, Florida, on the 3d. Our forces were confident of their ability to hold out. A cartridge factory at Jackson, Ga., exploded Nov. 5th, killing all employed in the works, not less than thirty lives.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—A Pensacola letter of October 29th, says the U. S. steamer Montgomery had arrived at that port with the steamer Carolina as a prize. She was captured 50 miles off Mobile after a seven hour chase. She was loaded with munitions of war.

New York, Nov. 11th.—The Herald's Washington correspondent, says, we have news from Richmond to 6th. The rebel Gen. Lee had arrived there, and resumed his position as commander-in-chief. Gen. Joe Johnston succeeds Lee in active command of the armies north of Richmond. He has now his headquarters at Culpepper. Stonewall Jackson's corps has been increased to 50,000. The situation of the Federal army was well understood at Richmond. The new Merrimac is completed, and has been at Fort Darling for some days, with steam up and a full complement of men aboard. Richmond papers of the 7th, state that the rebel army is shoeless, and appeals to the people to supply them.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11th.—Sanitary Committee remitted $30,000 to-day.

White's Patent Lever Trusses.—These instruments are recommended to the public as the best ever yet invented. The principle is new and different from any other. The Pad works over a Knuckle, giving it a circular INWARD and UPWARD motion, thus being able to support the rupture with half the pressure required by other Trusses. The pain consequent upon heavy pressure is thereby avoided.

These instruments will not rust, and are the lightest, most durable and most cleanly of all others. They can be washed at pleasure. Many persons have been cured by them of ruptures of several years standing.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Public Lecture.—Hon. J. E. Vinton, recently from Wisconsin, who has been interesting our people upon the subject of Temperance, we understand will again address the citizens of this place, this evening at the M. E. Church. The lecture to-night will be free. To-morrow night, he will deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Athenian Society, and a small admission fee will be collected at the door. The proceeds of this lecture is to be applied in the purchase of a public library, accessible to any and all who may desire to avail themselves of its advantages.—As the objects are of importance and beneficial, we hope that the receipts may be large.

Sailed.—The steamship Sierra Nevada did not leave the mouth of the Willamette until yesterday morning about 6 o'clock, having been detained in consequence of getting aground at Swan Island bar, and a heavy fog.

Died.—We are informed that an immigrant just from the Plains, in a somewhat destitute condition, without friends or acquaintances, died on Friday night last at Austin's livery stable on Washington street. It is further reported that the unfortunate man left a wagon and other property at the stable which may be of some value; whether this report is true or not we are unable to say, but presume that any person desirous of learning further particulars can do so by calling upon Mr. Austin at the above mentioned stable.

Ax-ing.—An ax-idental case of ax-ing occurred yesterday, without ax-ing permission, in which one man chopped off three fingers from the hand of another man, while engaged with an axe, splitting wood.

Will it be Done?—That hole at the crossing of Taylor and Front streets has not yet been repaired. Will it be done?

Nearly Completed.—Contrary to the expectations of many, the grading and laying down of side-walks on Washington street is progressing toward completion, and should the wet weather hold off a few days longer, this work will be completed sufficiently to be of service to those who travel that street. We also notice the completion of two fire cisterns on this street in a very creditable and workmanlike manner.

Pleasant.—Yesterday (Sunday), was a very pleasant day, and we noticed a large turn out of our citizens, ladies, gentlemen and children, to the various churches and in riding and walking out for pleasure and health.

Select School.—The second term of the Select School, of which Rev. P. Macken is superintendent, and Mr. John McBride principal, commences to-day at corner of Oak and Third streets. Those who have patronized this school express entire satisfaction.

Removed.—W. W. Baker & Co. have lately removed their large and extensive stock of groceries, provisions and assorted merchandise to their new brick building, north-east corner Front and Alder streets. We understand that they have made permanent arrangements with dealers below for the shipment of apples, &c., and are now prepared to purchase the same from the farmers of Oregon at as high prices as any establishment in the city.

Tobacconists.—We notice that Messrs. Wasserman, Bros., tobacconists, have lately added a large stock of tobacco, cigars, pipes, etc., etc., to their establishment, including a "music box," for the accommodation and amusement of customers. Those who use the weed will find the best in the market at this place, direct from Eastern manufactories.

Lectures.

Editor Oregonian:

The first of a series of lectures before the Athenian Library Association will be given by Hon. J. E. Vinton, at the M. E. Church, on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst. A plan has been adopted by which these lectures will occur semi-monthly during the ensuing winter and it is hoped the public will co-operate with those who have undertaken the measure, and give their influence in its behalf. It is designed, in addition to the advantage derived from the lectures, to connect another object—the establishing of a library accessible to all who may wish to avail themselves of its privileges. A difficulty is to be met here, of which we are entirely sensible. I refer to the successive failures with which every similar effort in Portland has been characterized.—This is a sad comment, but it does not prove the accomplishing of such an object impossible. Hesitation ought not to be admitted—if the interest which the cause demands be taken, success is insured.

In behalf of the Association.

E. W. CORNELL, Pres't.

Monitors.—The Montauk, the fourth of the new Monitor fleet, was launched at Greenpoint, New York, October 9th. The Montauk is one of the nine one-turret Monitors which were contracted for in April and May last.—Four of them are now afloat, namely: No. 1 Passaic, launched at Greenpoint, April 31, 1862; No. 2, Patapsco, launched at Wilmington, Delaware, October 1, 1862; No. 3, Nahant, launched at Boston, October 6, 1862; No. 4, Montauk, launched at Greenpoint, October 9, 1862. The others are—No. 5, Nantucket, building at Boston, nearly ready; No. 6, Lehigh, building at Chester, Pennsylvania; No. 7, Sangamon, building at Chester, nearly ready; No. 8, Kaatskill, building at Greenpoint and nearly ready; No. 9, Weehawken, building at Jersey City and nearly ready.—Mr. Ericsson has the immediate supervision of all the vessels of this rate, but not of the Onondaga, another large iron-clad now on the stocks at Greenpoint, and contracted for by Mr. Quintard.

MARRIED:

At the Synagogue Beth Israel, in this city, Sunday, November 16th, Mr. Wolff to Miss Riddleheim.

The printers acknowledge the receipt of a bottle of "Champaigne" accompanying the above notice, and after duly partaking thereof, join in wishing the happy pair a long life of unalloyed bliss.

FIELD'S STEAMED OYSTERS!

Mr. A. FIELD, whose Oysters have long enjoyed the highest reputation in this market, has recently invented an entirely new process of packing which possesses every advantage over the one hitherto employed. It so preserves the natural flavor, freshness and shape of the Oyster that they may be either Stewed, Fried, Scolloped or Fancy Roasted—in fact cooked in any manner adapted to those just taken from the shell. They will not be broken into pieces by land travel, however lengthy, and will retain their sweetness, after the can is cut, longer than secured by any other method.

Shipments arrived and for sale by all the Grocery Jobbers in San Francisco.

H. H BLACK,

DENTIST,

Late from the Cincinnati College of Dentistry.

Office and Laboratory, No. 10, Alder street, Four Doors from Front, Portland, Ogn.

Having secured the services of Dr. C. H. MACK, formerly of New York city, and late of St. Louis, who is an experienced and skillful Dentist, I am now prepared to manufacture and insert Artificial Teeth by the following methods, namely: Gold, Silver, Rubber, Amber, Porcelain Base, Gum Enamel, Rubber Attachment, Cheoplastic, Continuous Gum, Mica and Enameled Plate Work. Some kinds of this work is recommended above all others, and needs but an inspection to prove its superiority for cleanliness, durability and life-like appearance to any artificial teeth in use.

Filling and cleaning teeth, and all operations in Dental Surgery, either mechanical, operative or surgical, performed in the most thorough and highly finished manner. None but the most permanent and finished operations performed, and no inducements to patients by low priced or roughly finished operations. I use no cement in filling teeth, and seek in price to make no competition with Cheap Dentists; and desire the patronage of such persons only as wish their operations performed in the most perfect and skillful manner.

Operations that fail to give satisfaction need not be taken or paid for. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Indigent persons who are unable to pay full professional charges will call before and after office hours. nov6tf

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

AND

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a strong seam, alike on each side of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any given shade of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, a ravel.

[illegible] in company [illegible] ladies [illegible] to the [illegible] State. We [illegible] ed, both in quality [illegible] early the latter. After [illegible] of three days in the [illegible] at the settlements [illegible] felt on reaching [illegible] that we felt [illegible] after a week's [illegible]

The first settlement we came to [illegible] what is called [illegible] consists of about twenty [illegible] scattered around [illegible] tween them [illegible] without being [illegible] There is but little land under cultivation—the reputed uncertainty of [illegible] crops ripening probably rendering it unprofitable and the settlers finding it easier (a great consideration with them) to gain a living by some other means of which [illegible] potatoes salmon beef and butter is being, as far as my observation went, the principal productions of the country—the fresh water streams that empty into the bay, the rich light soil, and the luxuriant grass being pre eminently favorable for these articles

A few miles south of here is South Prairie, which we did not visit but it is said to be much larger and better in almost all respects than the first mentioned. Most of the settlers who are now going over, locate in this prairie

The day after we arrived we were joined by a company of excursionists from Polk County making our number in all twenty. On the day following we started down the slough in a scow—that being the only "vehicle" we could obtain—a distance of six miles, where we found some half dozen houses. Here we camped for the night, and in the morning took the ebb [illegible] the beach, about six miles farther. The tides not being sufficiently low we were obliged to climb over a point of rocks which project except at the very lowest tides into the water's edge. This feat very much astonished the inhabitants who declared that ladies who could go over that trail, could go anywhere and do anything they undertook

We staid on the beach that night, and the next morning took advantage of the tides and went around the rocks which we found to be much the easiest and most pleasant way of getting past them

The mouth of Tillamook Bay is but half a mile wide from beach to beach, the channel is less than half that distance, but is said to be sixteen feet deep at the lowest tide. Whether the bay will eventually prove to be of any importance or not, is a question which time alone can decide.

We camped again at the head of the bay. Here a part of our company were obliged to leave us two persons being taken sick with the measles, but on the next day were joined by about a dozen more, when we started for Netarts or Oyster Bay, about seven or eight miles south of Tillamook, four of which we walked carrying our blankets and provisions on our backs over a trail compared to which the canyon this side of Portland is a smooth level road, and which distance we made (some of the ladies also having small packs) in about an hour and a half

This bay is about six miles long and one and a half or two miles wide most of which extent is bare at low tide. The oyster beds are near the upper end and extend over about 175 or 200 acres, in water from four to eight feet deep. The channel at the mouth is about eleven feet deep, and very narrow

We found some fifteen or twenty men and about as many Indians engaged in catching oysters, which sell readily at $1 12½ per bushel, and are said to find a much better market in San Francisco than the Shoalwater bay oysters. The men were making from six to ten dollars per day at the above mentioned price, and generally seemed to be pretty well satisfied. They are planting new beds, and calculate that in a few years an extensive business will be carried on.— We were shown a bucketful by a Mr Alderman which he said he should send over to the State Fair if he could find a chance to have them brought over with the care necessary to have them in good order for exhibition, but I did not see them there. They were very fine, and with a little cultivation, I think a very superior article may be produced. We staid there over night and in the morning the [illegible] boys treated us to a nice oyster stew, and a ride across the bay to the beach, seeming determined to enjoy the society of the ladies as long as possible

We reached Hoquarton Prairie again that night, and got into a house in time to escape a copious effusion of our Oregon mist with which I think they are even better supplied than we are in this valley

I need not trouble you to follow us any farther. Suffice it to say that we arrived home safe heartily glad to once more enjoy the pleasures of civilization and hear the news

There are many other incidents that would probably be interesting but I have occupied too much room already and will close with one word of advice to future excursionists. Be careful about eating cranberries without plenty of sugar, as Blackwell and the "Doctor" will uphold me in saying that the effects may be very unpleasant

Yours M

A Curious Experiment.—Take a piece of pasteboard about five inches square roll it into a tube with one end just large enough to fit around the eye and the other end rather smaller. Hold the tube between the thumb and finger of the right hand (do not grasp it with the whole hand) put the large end close against the right eye and with the left hand hold a book against the side of the tube. Be sure to keep both eyes open and the [illegible] will appear to be a hole through the book and objects seen as if through the hole instead of through the tube. The right eye sees through the tube, and the left eye sees the book and the two appearances are so confounded together that they cannot be separated. This is the way to see through a mill stone. The left hand can be held against the tube instead of a book, and the hand will seem to be seen through the hand

Facts About Newspapers.—The recent issue of the preliminary report of the eighth census of the United States develops some astonishing facts relative to the public press. [illegible] statement appended [illegible] shows what a newspaper reading nation we are and how large a portion of our reading is [illegible] 4,051 papers and periodicals published in the United States at the date of the census of 1860, 242 or 5.92 per cent were political in their character; 290 or 7.38 per cent are devoted to literature, religion and the [illegible] comprise the [illegible] of 277 or 6.8 per cent while 234 or 5.77 per cent are classed as miscellaneous. Of the total circulation in the country three States—New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts—furnish [illegible] 026,124 copies or considerably more than half of the aggregate amount, which is 927 [illegible] copies

A Hysterical Panic.—A singular hysterical panic among factory girls is reported in a Manchester paper. Upwards of 300 girls were employed in sewing in the large school room under Dr Munro's Chapel and one or two of them were subject to fits. One afternoon recently everything was proceeding in the usual manner, when suddenly one of the girls was prostrated by a fit. There was considerable alarm created in the school by this circumstance and almost instantly another girl was attacked by what the superintendent believes was hysteria, and then another and another until quite a panic prevailed altogether 19 girls becoming affected in less than an hour

San Francisco Fruit Market.

San Francisco Nov 7th 1862.

Ed. Farmer.—The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived here on the 30th of October, with about [illegible] 500 boxes apples, from your port. Sales ranged mostly at [illegible] a few choice lots at [illegible]

Also the bark Almatia arrived on the 1st inst, with about 6,000 boxes mostly fall fruit, much of it dead ripe, mealy and decaying. The inferior quality of the fruit and the large supply in market caused sales of this cargo to go at extremely low prices. The bulk of it sold at $1 per box, about 2,000 boxes at 60 cents per box and a few hundred boxes of the best sold at [illegible]
